

OJJDP FY 2007 High-Risk Youth Offender Reentry and Family Strengthening Initiatives

Performance Measures

To assist in fulfilling the Department’s responsibilities under the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), P.L. 103-62, applicants who receive funding under this solicitation must provide data that measures the results of their work.

Performance measures for this solicitation are as follows:

Objective	Performance Measures	Data Grantee Provides
High-Risk Youth Offender Reentry Initiative Promote and support innovative strategies in the field of juvenile reentry, building upon the foundational structure of the Intensive Aftercare Program Model. Build and maintain collaborative partnerships with juvenile corrections, juvenile probation and parole agencies, and faith-based and community-based service providers	Percent of youth who offend or reoffend. Increase of program youth who successfully complete the pre-release program. Number of program youth under supervision in the community following release from the facility. Increased number of pre-release services being provided to program youth in the following categories: Cognitive behavioral therapy or other counseling            Life skills            Employment            Education            Substance abuse	Number of youth with a new offense, compared to number of youth in program. Number of program youth who successfully complete a pre-release risk or needs assessment, participate in all assigned pre-release services, and obtain a transition plan. Number of program youth who are in the program. Number of program youth who are subject to some term of supervision upon release from the facility. Number of program youth receiving pre-release services while incarcerated, indicating category of service and providing overall and category-level data.

Family Strengthening Initiative Strengthen families of youth involved in the juvenile justice system to help them improve family functioning and to support their ability to make informed decisions about the services youth receive.	Mental health Overall health Family strengthening Anger Management Mentoring Faith based Other Number of youths and families served. Percent of program-enrolled families who exhibit a desired change in targeted behavior. Number of families with at least one parent/guardian participating in a majority of relevant services (e.g., family counseling, family-oriented recreation activities, accompanying youth to court and other appointments) Number of parents/guardians satisfied with services provided	Number of program youth and families carried over from the previous reporting period, plus new admissions during the reporting period. Number of families who exhibit a desired change in targeted behavior, compared to number of families enrolled in program. Number of families with youth participating in the program with at least one parent/guardian participating in a majority of relevant services. Number of families with youth served during the reporting period. Number of parents/guardians satisfied with services provided Number of families with youth served during the reporting period.
--	---	--