

AMBER Alert Training and Technical Assistance Program

Performance Measures

The Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), Public Law 103–62, requires that recipients of federal grant awards collect, analyze, and report data that measure the results of strategies implemented with federal funds. To ensure compliance with GPRA, OJJDP requires grantees to collect and report data which measure the results of the program implemented with this grant. OJJDP requires the following performance measures:

Note: Table has been updated to comply with new formatting requirements.

Objective	Performance Measures	Data Grantee Provides
The primary deliverable and work products will be the development of specific training initiatives, technical assistance, and program management to AMBER Alert coordinators, law enforcement, broadcasters (media), departments of transportation, and missing and abducted children organizations. The deliverables should be directed toward the continuation, expansion, and enhancement of the Department of Justice’s AMBER Alert program.	Outputs: Percentage of primary partners (AMBER Alert coordinators, law enforcement, prosecutors, departments of transportation, state clearinghouses for missing and exploited children) who participate in training programs annually.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Total number of primary partners trained, compared to total number of primary partners, reported in a given rating period.</li> </ul>
	Percent of training events for which participant evaluation data are entered in the information management system. Percent of participants who rated training as “good” or “excellent.”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Total number of training events, reported in a given rating period.</li> <li>Number of training events for which participant evaluation data are entered in the information management system compared to the total number of training events, reported in a given rating period.</li> <li>Number of participants who rated training as “good” or “excellent” compared to total number of training participants in a given rating period.</li> </ul>

	Number of public service agencies participating in comprehensive child recovery plan trainings annually.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Number of agencies trained, reported in a given rating period.</li> </ul>
	Number of program materials developed (training curricula, publications, resource documents).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Number of program materials developed, reported in a given rating period.</li> </ul>
	Number of hours of training provided.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Number of training hours conducted, reported in a given rating period.</li> </ul>

Recipients' assistance in obtaining this information will facilitate future program planning and will allow OJP to provide Congress with measurable program results of federally funded programs.