

Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Program

Performance Measures

The Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), Public Law 103–62, requires that recipients of federal grant awards collect, analyze, and report data that measure the results of strategies implemented with federal funds. To ensure compliance with GPRA, grantees are required to collect and report data which measure the results of the program implemented with this grant. The following performance measures are required:

Objective	Performance Measures	Data Grantee Provides
Maintain and expand state and regional ICAC task forces to address technology-facilitated child exploitation in order to prevent, interdict, and investigate ICAC offenses. Improve task force effectiveness in handling technology-facilitated child exploitation in order to prevent, interdict, and investigate ICAC offenses.	Outcomes Percent increase in number of ICAC-related arrests. Outputs Number of partner agencies engaged in ICAC task force work at the local, state and regional level. Number of investigative technical assistance sessions that ICAC task forces provide to non-member law enforcement agencies. Number of computer forensic technical assistance examinations that ICAC task forces provide to non-member law enforcement agencies.	Number of ICAC-related arrests during reporting period. Number of agencies that sign memorandum certifying compliance with ICAC program guidelines. Number of investigative technical assistance sessions that ICAC task forces provide to non-member law enforcement agencies. Number of computer forensic technical assistance examinations that ICAC task forces provide to non-member law enforcement agencies.

Award recipients are required to collect and report data in support of these measures. Recipients' assistance in obtaining this information will facilitate future program planning and will allow OJP to provide Congress with measurable program results of federally funded programs.
